Record Vote Cast Here; City Retains GOP Preference

A record vote was cast in Upland on Tuesday, with 5980 ballots cast in the gubernatorial election in the 26 Upland precincts plus the San Antonio Heights and College Heights precincts. This total is greater than the 5866 voters registered in the 26 Upland precincts at the time of the spring primary election.

Many Upland precincts reported 85 per cent of their registered voters had cast ballots, and several precincts had better than 90 per cent turn out of registered voters.

Republicans Favored

Upland city's registered voter list has increased considerably since the primary election.

Despite the Democratic party's sweeping state and national victories, in Upland the voters favored only two of the major candidates on the local ballots, namely congressman Harry Sheppard and Stanford C. Shaw, the latter the state senatorial candidate, Ontario attorney and former Assemblyman.

Mikesell Supported

Receiving the biggest majority vote here was Richard G. Manley, former city manager and supervisorial candidate, who received 3,756 votes to 1,510 for Eugene A. Conlon of Fontana. The only larger majority locally was given Proposition 17, defeated here 4,766 to 905.

Assemblyman Eugene G. Nisbet failed to receive majority support of his hometown precincts, with 3,341 ballots cast for Daniel Mikesell to 2,377 for Incumbent Nisbet. Attorney Shaw claimed 3,011 local votes over 2,725 for State Senator Raymond Gregory the incumbent.

U.S. Congressman Sheppard received 3,535 local votes to top Robt. Castle's 2,311.

In the gubernatorial race, Upland's majority vote was for defeated Senator Wm. F. Knowland, who received 3,316 local votes while Governor-Elect Edmund G. "Pat" Brown received 2,664 favorable ballots here.

For Knowland Knight

Governor Goodwin J. Knight also received local support, despite his statewide loss to U.S. Congressman Clair Engle for the U. S. Senate seat being vacated by Knowland. Gov. Knight received 3,386 votes in Upland to 2,533 for Engle.

Proposition 16 and 17, both defeated statewide, were thoroughly rejected by the local voters, but Proposition 18, the right to work issue, was supported locally and defeated statewide.

Yes Vote On "18"

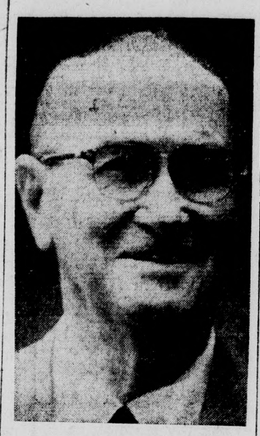

Proposition 16 local votes were 4,186 no and 1,707 yes. On Proposition 17, the local ballots were counted 4,766 no and 905 yes. Proposition 18 was a closer vote here, with 3,131 yes votes and 2,721 no votes. The county charter was approved in Upland, 2,967 to 1,908.

Returns from Cucamonga, Alta Loma and Etiwanda districts are not complete for an accounting of the local voting as this report is written.

Small Crop, Winds Hit Upland Lemons In Record Season

Annual Meeting Of Upland Lemon Assn. Today; Financial Report, Sunkist Speaker On Program

Upland Lemon Growers Assn. will meet in annual session today, 1:30 p.m., in the Elementary school auditorium, when the annual financial reports will be given by Secretary Jarvis J. Leman and the special speaker will be Karl Loos, special counsel for Sunkist Growers, Inc.

Warren Wass Assn. president, announces that Mr. Loos will speak on the legal aspects of the recent merger of Exchange Lemon Products Co. with Sunkist.

Industry-Wide Record

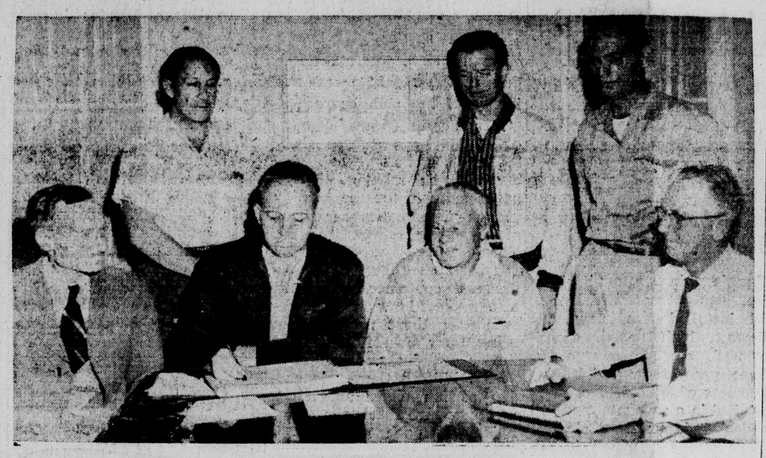

With the crop year having ended Nov. 1, the Arizona-California lemon industry today reports a record 1957-58 season with 36,172 railway carloads of lemons marketed, a six per cent increase over the previous record crop.

Despite this industry-wide increase, and an increase in local lemon acreage, Upland Lemon Growers Assn. reports a 17 per cent decrease in carloads of lemons shipped, the seasons total being 1,605 cars.

Acreage Increasing

Total acreage of lemons in the Assn. is now 3,360, increased from 3,260 a year ago, with the additional 100 acres representing new plantings, groves budded over from oranges and new member groves formerly with other associations. All groves of the Assn. are located within three or four miles of the Assn. packing plant in downtown Upland, Third Ave. and A St.

One of the largest lemon houses in the industry, Upland Lemon Growers Assn. was hit during the past year by two heavy winds of December and January, which resulted in a lower quality fruit in an already smaller crop. Financial figures for the year are not yet completed but will be down due to the smaller crop and lower fruit quality, as will be reported to the Assn. membership today.

Last of $1,000,000 To Shareholders For Water Co. Stock

With more than $1,000,000 having been designated for shareholders in eight water companies throughout the Cucamonga district as Cucamonga County Water District purchased the small companies earlier this year, final payments to shareholders are now being made by Alta Loma Domestic Water Co.

This company, the last of all the companies purchased by the water district to pay its shareholders, is now paying a total in excess of $59,600 with each share worth approximately $110.

Final Board Session

The pay-off by Alta Loma Domestic Water Co. has awaited certification of clearance by the State Franchise Tax board following the audit of its books. The certificate arrived Monday and Tuesday night the company's board of directors met in special and final session.

At that time, the directors declared the price to be paid per share and arranged for checks to be mailed to the shareholders, afterwhich they declared the company dissolved.

Billings President

Presiding at the session was Eugene M. Billings, president. Also present were Arthur Relph, vice president; John Schmutz, Roy G. Cabe, Herbert C. Hall and Richard Curry, directors, and C. E. Hogancamp, employed as secretary since 1945. Absent was Director Woodrow Wiles.

Mr. Billings emphasized that at the final board meeting, checks were mailed only to shareholders who have returned their shares to the secretary. He urged all shareholders who have not turned in their shares to do so immediately and their checks will be forthcoming soon thereafter.

Five hundred and 40 shares in the company are held by 320 shareholders.

Historic Era Ends

With the dissolution of the last of the small water companies in the district, the end of an era is realized. Alta Loma Domestic Water Co. is one of the small companies which has served areas of the vast Cucamonga district through historic years.

It has served the settlement of Alta Loma proper since 1917, its service covering the area generally bordered by Base Line and 19th, Archibald and Vineyard. In 1946, Lomita Water District was incorporated with the concern. Cucamonga County Water District assumed operation of the company's lines July 1 and has since increased water pressures in the area.

Due to this improved water service, made possible by larger water reserves and automatic controls, the Board of Fire Underwriters has resurveyed the area in line with a possible reduction in fire protection rates.

Expect Reduction

No report of their findings has yet been received but some district leaders anticipate a new fire protection rate equivalent to that of Upland. A rate reduction was realized about two years ago after improvements were made by the now dissolved Alta Loma Domestic Water Co.

Other companies purchased by the water district include Alta Loma Citrus, Hedges Well, Inc., Carnelian Water Co., Sunset Water Co., Old Settlers, Arrow Route, and the larger Cucamonga Water Co.

Major undertaking accomplished has been the creation of the parking district which will turn the downtown business area into a gigantic shopping center.

Auxiliary Power Generates New Hospital Feature

San Antonio Community Hospital has accepted delivery and installed two, new, 200 kilowatt, high speed, diesel-powered, electric generators. These generators, which cost in excess of $65,000, are being installed in a separate, specially designed, concrete electric power building, which is adjacent to the main hospital building. The new, instant starting, electric generators, plus the old generators, make it possible for the hospital to produce a total of 500 kilowatts of electric power.

This means that, in the future, whenever a storm or disaster knocks out the local power lines, the hospital will automatically switch over and begin producing all of its own power. The power generators absolutely insure doctors and patients of uninterrupted lighting and power in the surgeries, emergency departments and all patient rooms.

In addition x-ray equipment and electric incubators, electric oxygen tents, electric therapy equipment and even air-conditioning will always work. Even though every power source in Southern California is knocked out, every electric device at the hospital will operate, without interruption for weeks, if necessary.

Hawaiian Islands Fabulous Setting For Vacation

If anyone has any doubts concerning the pleasures of a vacation trip to the Hawaiian Islands, he or she should talk with Mrs. Theodore Uber, 2460 Euclid Cr. W. who in company with her husband, has just returned from a fabulous vacation to the Islands. The Ubers are the owners of Van Ness Water Gardens, located at the same address.

The trip over and return was made on Transocean air lines, and they spent 10 days in and around Honolulu. They were taken on all the regular tours provided for visitors, but, through their own initiative, were able to see many of the sights that regular visitors miss.

They had planned their trip so as to be on the Islands during the annual Aloha week celebration, at which time the local citizens go "all out" for celebrating and entertainment of visitors. exhibits of famous dances such as the hula, native Tahitan and Zulu dances and the sword dance were presented free to the public. At other times, these dances are to be seen only in exclusive night clubs.

The Wiola tea room and garden, managed by the Salvation army, was of particular interest to the Uplanders, because in this famous garden water lillies form a predominant part of the landscaping, and were guests of Mrs. Leak, hostess, on a personally conducted tour to some of the places not ordinarily open to tourists. This included a visit to the exclusive Outrigger club, open to members only, and a visit to the McKinley gardens. Mr. McKinley is general manager of the Bishop Trust Co. in Honolulu.

The "little grass shack" of Robert Louis Stevenson, originally the playhouse of Princess Kioulani, has been moved from the beach and holds a position of eminence in the garden of the Wiola Tea room. A stop was also made at the Willows restaurant and the Foster Botanical gardens. The Ubers found water lilies used in gardens on the Islands, but not to the extent to be expected, considering the climate.

Mr. and Mrs. Uber, wishing to attend church on Sunday and not knowing just where to go, heard a church bell ringing, and walking around the corner, saw a Japanese church, a Buddhist temple. Feeling a bit hesitant about entering, they asked a Japanese gentleman standing near the entrance if they might enter and they were given a most cordial invitation to do so and also assured that Mr. Uber, following the informal attire of the Island and wearing a sport shirt, was very welcome. Following the services, the Ubers were taken on another tour of the city of Honolulu, this time by a young Japanese couple, both of whom had lived for a time in the United States, and saw many beautiful and unusual sights from their hosts' point of view.

While the Uplanders made their headquarters in a hotel, they also visited with friends, former residents of Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Stofle, who have been residents of Honolulu for six years, where Mr. Stofle is employed by the Standard Oil Co. Mr. and Mrs. Stofle entertained them in true Hawaiian fashion including a luau with all the trimmings.

Mr. and Mrs. Uber are both full of praise for the hospitality and friendliness with which they were treated and stated that they ad never been entertained so sumptiously or treated so hospitably by strangers. At the time of sailing for home, they were showered with leis of carnations, plumeria and gardenias, to name a few. They were also happily surprised to learn that all of the water lilies which they saw, had originally come from their Van Ness water gardens.

Delay Selecting City Director Of Public Works

Upland's city government will continue to operate without the services of a Director of Public Works, the city council having reviewed applications and examination results and decided to wait on a selection, possibly until spring, to fill the newly created position.

The new post was created at the time of the retirement of A. R. Hays, city water department head, when his post was combined with responsibility for the city's other public works activities.

Talent Show

Fifty tickets to a "Stars of the Future" talent show in San Bernardino municipal auditorium Saturday, Nov. 15, 7:30 p.m. are available here to any group desiring to attend.

Sgt. Felix Quesada at Upland Police Dept. has the tickets available without charge for interested groups or individuals. The event is sponsored by La Societe des 40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux.

Highlanders Yield To Claremont, 7-0 Host Chino Friday

BY REED HANSEN

After three goal line stands, on the one, two, and 19-yard lines, the Highlanders of Upland High School finally yielded to Claremont the only touchdown of the night and that TD spelled the difference again as the Highlanders have lost both league games by a one touchdown score. The game was played at Alumni field in Claremont before a homecoming crowd of half-crazed, half-dazed fans.

With three games yet to play, Upland hosts Chino at Graber field, Chaffey campus, Friday, 8 p.m. After that they travel to Bonita High on Nov. 14 and host Corona Nov. 22.

Claremont displayed it's fabled past seasons' greatness in Friday's game for they literally romped up and down the field. This was the Wolfpacks' first victory, thus setting up a grid titanic with Pomona next week.

The Upland offense was held to only 27 yards on the ground and 9 in the air as Claremont was very stiff on their defense work.

The Wolfpack offense was equally effective on their defense as three different backs rolled up 230 yards against Upland's forward wall.

The first stand came in the first period when Claremont moved to the Highlanders' two-yard line. But Upland's combined defense of Lino Robledo, Jon Kay, Carlyle Lyneis, Terry Jones, and Dave Rogalia held the challenging Wolfpack.

Terry Jones saved the day in the second quarter as he stopped Don Kielhorst on the one-yard line. On a sixty-yard march in the third period, Claremont moved to Upland's 19-yard line but Louie Schmutz broke up a fourth down pass stemming that drive.

On a 77-yard march in 13 plays, the Wolfpack capitalized with 6:00 gone in the fourth period on a line plunge by Bob Benson. Ray Sevilla kicked the extra point and the winning score was accomplished.

Lyneis, Cyphers, and Rogalia all were injured slightly but recovered to finish up in fine fashion. Gary Thompson again turned in a fine game at his end slot. Coach Harley Lovitt remarked, "This is the worst we've looked this year, they ran over us because they wanted to beat us."

With 40-0 Win, Raiders Hold League Power

Upland Junior High Raiders continued to dominate the Sun Valley league, opening the second round of play with a 40-0 win over Sequoia of Fontana on the loser's field. It was the second shutout victory for the locals over Sequoia by identical scores.

Lanky Corny Ballon opened the scoring spree by scooting around end for 25 yards and six points and then scored another touchdown on a 25 yard pass play from Fullback Larry Turner. Turner ran for both extra points.

Parratt Scores Three

Coach George Schilens' Raiders then began to open up on the ground with fleet-footed Monty Parratt leading the way with three touchdowns. Parratt's first tally came on a brilliant 85 yard run and the others on short jaunts of five and eight yards. This was the first game of the season played on a regulation high school field. The gridiron is usually 40 yards by 80 yards.

Turner passed to Ballon and Halfback Louie Morales for two conversions.

The final score of the afternoon came when Turner steamed into the end zone from 10 yards out.

In the defensive department Turner led the way with seven flags, followed by Loren Miller and John Gilliland, five each) Ken Shattuck, four, and Henry Merancio and Larry Huddleston, three.

Bees Top Wolves At Cost of Guard Tom Chalberg

TOM CHALBERG

Friday night, the Upland Bees topped host Claremont, 6-0 but the team lost the services of Guard Tom Chalberg, who broke two bones in his right foot on the second half kickoff.

A blocked punt by Mike williams set up the score, with Quarterback Joe Valadez connecting with End Junior Fuentes on a two-yard aerial for the lone score of the evening.

The running of fullback Marcy Guzman also stood out in the win although the team missed the services of defensive Halfback Ted Stipe, injured in practice. Upland now has a 2-0 league record which puts them in first place.

Upland	0	0	6	0	—6

Penn's QB Sneak Good for Three Yards and Victory

Coach Gerry Bell's Upland High School JV's made the three-yard quarterback sneak of Ron Penn good for a 6-0 victory over visiting Twin Pines Friday afternoon at Highlander Field.

Penn's sneak came after a 65-yard march in the second period. Upland's defense was also instrumental as they didn't allow Twin Pines to penetrate past the 50-yard marker. Fullback Lou Dillon played an outstanding game for Upland.

New Home Housewarming Surprises Harvey Stumps

The lovely new home of the Harvey Stump family, 868 Linden Court was the scene of a surprise housewarming recently. Mr. and Mrs. Stump have been active in church work in Chino Brethren in Christ church of which the Rev. Merle Brubaker is pastor, having served as teen age class teachers, and it was these groups who sponsored the event.

Main feature of the evening and one of unusual interest was a "This is Your Life" type of program, written and narrated by Kathleen Groff. Pictures of their early life, school days and later years were projected. Souvenirs of those years were also used and included such items as the wedding gown of Mrs. Stump which was modeled by Malinda Brown, and a note of gaiety was added when Norma Lennert appeared in a well-worn gym suit belonging to Mrs. Stump.

Mother Is Surpirse

Climax to the evening came when Mrs. Stump was asked to identify a mystery voice, and recognized it as that of her mother, Mrs. Clifford Bolsinger of Hanover, Ill. She had arrived the day before the event, but had been staying secretly in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stump, brother and sister-in-law of Mr. Stump.

Refreshments of cake and punch were served the guests. The cakes had been baked and decorated by Mrs. Bill Blair, Janna Blair ad Mrs. George Ashley.

Tape, Pictures Taken

In addition to the 60 guests attending the party, the families of both Mr. and Mrs. Stump will be able to enjoy the event as it was tape recorded and pictures were taken.

Science Films In Classroom Use At Central

During the current school year, students of grades four through eight at Central school, Cucamonga, will have the advantage of viewing a series of science films at intervals.

First of the films viewed by the students was "X Minus 80 Days", which depicted the 80 days prior to the launching of the Explorer satellite.

Other films scheduled for the classes are "Our Mr. Sun", "Hemo, The Great", and other such films normally seen only on television.

Mrs. Dorothy Hickcox, principal, reports the films have been made available to the school by Orval Minney, radiation safety engineer at Calif. Technological Institute, who has three children enrolled at Central school. Mrs. Hickcox had high praise for the films and their value in the classroom.

Scrappy Bees Beat Pomona St. Joseph's

The stubborn, scrappy Upland Junior High "B" eleven edged out a much larger Pomona St. Joseph's team, 13-7, for their second league win of the season against one loss, and a tie.

Frank Martinez opened the scoring early in the first period, going 12 yards off tackle and duplicated the play for the extra point. Later in the opening quarter Terry Strohm intercepted on the loser's 18 yard line. One play later Benes scurried 18 yards on the reverse to close out the locals scoring.

The defensive unit led by Charles Kowecki, Dave Callaway, Charles Dunlap, Ray Leon, and Strohm played excellent ball throughout, holding the larger opposing unit to only one touchdown.

Lineups for Upland: Ends—Spillane, McLaughlin Hawkins, Pacheco, Foody; tackles—C. Johnson, Callaway, Kawecki, Missler, Ramos; guards—Davis, Stowell, Ennis, Harmon; center—Futcher, Perry, Strohm; quarterback—Schumann, Zabala; halfbacks—Whittaker, Walker, Benes, Martinez, Cabunoc, and fullbacks—F. Martinez and Leon.

Alta Loma Branch Library

From Bookcase In Ray Lawyer Barber Shop

For 22 years, Alta Loma Branch, San Bernardino County library has served its community, and for 15 of these yeas, Mrs. Ray (Alta) Lawyer has served as its librarian.

From the beginning of the branch library, it has been strongly associated with the Lawyers, well-known Alta Lomans. It had its humble beginning in Ray Lawyer's barber shop in the space now occupied by the post office.

The community was in need of the library, but no space was available until Mr. Lawyer offered to become librarian and add the book shelves to his barber chair. The large double bookcase which housed the original collection of volumes is still in use by the library, but is now holds only a small percentage of the books circulated to Alta Loma area readers.

Mrs. Clayton Served

Later the library was moved to the community building on Amethyst, and then was moved to the front space in the fire hall where Mrs. Myrtle Clayton served as librarian for seven years, during which period Mrs. Lawyer became her assistant. When Mrs. Clayton left the community in 1943 to join her husband in military service, Mrs. Lawyer was appointed librarian and has served continuously.

More than 3,000 volumes are now available from the county's branch library, with 50 per cent or more of these being books for children. Every two weeks, the library is visited by classes from Alta Loma school, the needs of the school thus being served by the important facility.

Summer Reading Club

In past years, Mrs. Lawyer has provided library programs for the school and for the district Woman's club. During the

YOUR PUBLIC LIBRARY

Heart Beat or Stumbling Block?

By DR. HAZEL ADELE PULLING
Librarian - Upland Public Library

The people of Upland are proud of their library—or do they look the other way when they pass its dull, weatherbeaten facade? They yearn for its offerings—but can't face its sixteen high steps. They love its life, its color, its music—but find the heat, the cold, the crowds, impede. They plan to use it—but let days slip by and by. Is the library, well, a stumbling block to peace of mind?

Or is it true that the thousands who come here come in spite of the somberness, the steps, the crowdedness, and the pressure of life? Do they find here recompense untold once they've climbed the steps and passed into the world that only books can offer? Do they find supply for their needs? Answers to their questions? Resource for their living? Do they drop their troubles here because a book has solved the problem? Do they leave with inspiration lifting high their hearts?

Ask them! They'll tell you! They'll tell you, "Yes! We find all this and even more! Greyed paint, worn bricks, high steps, heat and cold and lack of space—what are they? Only stumbling blocks! Not barriers!

But wouldn't it be nice if . . . ?

Will you?

Someday?

'Traffic Teasing' A Menace

Pedestrian crosswalks are dangerous playgrounds.

Motorists in Upland have noted that groups of students, en route to or from school, take advantage of pedestrian crosswalks on busily traveled streets for their amusement—and at the risk of their lives.

The procedure is for students to wait on the curb until traffic approaches, then dart into the pedestrian crosswalk in front of the advancing vehicles.

This is a dangerous game for anyone to play. It is being played by Upland students of both elementary and high school age. It has been most often repeated at the intersection of Euclid Ave. and 11th St.

Does your child practice "traffic teasing?"

'California Profile'

There's a beautiful booklet just off the press entitled California Profile.

In the booklet is a study of what has happened in California in many fields.

Such topics a spopulation, employment, income and buying power, education, new construction, water and power, natural resources, agriculture, manufacturing, retail trade, transportation, foreign trade, and comparison with other large states are included.

In both beautifully colored pictures and easy to understand charts and figures, the story of California growth is told.

There also is an eye-popping page of projections into the future to 1960 and 1965.

For anyone vitally interested in studies of this sort, we recommend this Bank of America work of art.

City Stands on Doorstep

We are convinced that Upland stands upon the doorstep of rapid growth.

Upland, to our mind, will show a greater percentage of growth in the next few years than Ontario.

Relatively undeveloped compared to many areas around us, the Greater Upland area seems sure to grow steadily.

This change should be expected and planned for now.

NEW BOOKS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

BY DR. HAZEL A. PULLING

Book Week always brings new books to the library in quantity. This year is no exception and scores of volumes have ben made ready by the library staff. There is one difference. Instead of keeping the books for exhibit during the week and tantalizing the readers who long for them, the stories are being put in circulation daily.

Two books for which boys have been waiting are THE FIRST BOOK OF AIRPLANES which fourth grade boys can read and THE JUNIOR AIRMAN'S BOOK OF AIRPLANES for boys of the fifth grade and up. Jeanne Bendick wrote the former and Clive E. Davis the latter book.

HOW TO DO NOTHING WITH NOBODY ALL ALONE BY YOURSELF by Robert Paul Smith. This is like no other book ever written. It has, in black and white, more than a hundred of the little tricks that children have used to amuse themselves the last few hundred years. Pin Pianos tanks from spools, a handkerchief parachute, bull-roarers from wood and string are all here. The complete game of mumbly-peg is explained. This is the answer to, "What can I do now?"

A picture book with few words and many pictures is FREDDY THE CURIOUS CAT by Grace Paul. Freddy found a deep hole in the garden. Who lives in the hole? Freddy sat by the hole and watched and waited — just as small boys and girls will wait for the surprise ending.

Two books for teen-agers are BIG DEAL by Janet Lambert and HEARTBREAK HOT ROD by James L. Summers. BIG DEAL is another Cinda Hollister story in which Cinda turns a dull summer into a riot which ended happily with money in the bank.

HEARTBREAK HOT ROD is different from other hot rod stories because it concentrates on the struggle that Richard Curtis, almost sixteen, went through the summer that he decided to rebuild a 1925 Star into a hot rod.

Members of the Library Club of America have the privilege of reading new books before they are put into circulation or they will review them for other boys and girls. Kit Cameron, secretary of the club, gives us the following review of MISS CATHY LEONARD by Catherine Wooley.

"Miss Cathy Leonard! See-

Keeping Up - -

With Uplanders

By V. V. P.

LOOKING AROUND

On this little trip up through California we see some things in communities that are unattractive.

Then we think about our fine community of Upland. . and what might be done to make it even better.

From a municipal standpoint, few cities have better "housekeeping" practices than does Upland but there are some unsightly spots in our community that could be greatly improved with very little effort. When a person looks critically at towns through which he travels, he can see places that should be improved; thus we at this moment are casting that same critical eye on Upland.

At this particular writing we are 400 miles from Upland, yet we vividly recall seeing the row of tumble weeds on the north side of the Bank of American parking lot, adjacent to the Pacific Electric right-of-way. It would take someone actually only a few minutes to remove this unsightly little patch of weeds; yet what a difference it would make.

Or, look at the south side of C St. from Third Ave. west to the alley between Second and First Aves. Between the curb and the sidewalk is a cluttered collection of debris and weeds. A full width commercial sidewalk may be placed there sometime but until that happens, this spot in our downtown shopping area should be always kept neat and attractive.

We are personally involved in some of that frontage. . and we will take care of our part immediately on our return.

Other little weed patches are also growing on Ninth St. in front of a parking lot, adjacent to the post office building.

Take a look at the Santa Fe right-of-way, fronting on the east side of Euclid Ave. Usually, industrial property looks untidy but this particular frontage could be improved immensely — with so little effort.

Razing of the abandoned citrus packing house on the west side of Euclid at the Santa Fe right-of-way will be an improvement — providing there is a good clean-up job.

The Upland Chamber of Commerce might assume this community "clean up" job with a special committee being alert to the opportunities in working with landlords and tenants in keeping clean various downtown undeveloped areas.

Incidentally, directors of Upland Chamber of Commerce are receiving fine cooperation from city hall officials in seeking to attract small, selected industries.

Prospective investors and developers in Upland are going to "look over" Upland with a critical eye. "Good community housekeeping" should, therefore, impel all of us to not only keep our streets and parkways clean but also to remove all possible unsightly spots.

Mrs. Welty's Thesis Cited By U.S. Bureau

Painstaking probing into a subject baffling to most parents has resulted in two distinct honors for Mrs. Mary L. Welty, Upland High School English instructor.

Mrs. Welty's thesis for her Master's degree, 'A Study of Time Utilization of High School Seniors in Relation to Activity Participation and Scholastic Achievement," has been selected by the United States Bureau of Education. It was named "an outstanding research in the area of guidance." A short analysis of it and information about procuring copies of it will accompany the listing of it in a nationally distributed publication of the Bureau.

Journal Article

In addition, Mrs. Welty's instructors at Claremont College submitted an article written by Mrs. Welty, taken from material in her thesis, to the California Journal of Secondary Administrators. It will be published in the near future.

Fifty Upland High School seniors worked with Mrs. Welty in compiling data for her thesis. Each student kept an accurate log book, listing the expenditure of his time. They checked off "time spent in study, in activities, reading, sports, homework, telephoning watching T.V., and just "goofing around' " Mrs. Welty said.

From her study, Mrs. Welty found that the time spent in activities outside of class did not impair the scholastic achievement of any of the students. One astonishing discovery she made—the time spent on T.V. was low!

Claremont M.A.

Mrs. Welty received her Master's degree at Claremont College this summer. She is now working on her credential in guidance. She is doing her internship in guidance at Upland High School, in addition to her regular teaching schedule.

She received her B. A. degree in education at University of Wisconsin. She is a member of Pi Lambda Theta honorary fratenity at Claremont College.

In addition to all this, she is historian for the Upland High School P.T.A., and sponsor of the Cynthians Tri-Hi-Y. She still has time to manage a lovely home for her husband, Ralph E. Welty, their two girls, Susan, 13, and Mary Lynne, 10, at 893 W. Eleventh St.

Has 71 Per Cent Resource Gain

Assets of the local institution now are $3,801,953 which represents a gain of $1,576,115 since Sept. 30, 1957.

Snack Bar Opens 7:30 A.M. Daily

Upland High School's snack bar will open at 7:30 a.m. five days a week effective immediately. This announcement was made by Mrs. Jessie Steadwell, snack bar manager.

Mrs. Steadwell explains that a number of students ride an early bus. Also, there are always those who sleep a little longer and miss breakfast at home. The need for a breakfast at school has been met by the snack bar staff, who offer hot cocoa, orange juice, and doughnuts each morning.

"This is not meant to be a balanced breakfast, "Mrs. Steadwell said. "You might call it an emergency ration." She further commented that on cold, foggy mornings, a cup of steaming hot cocoa will "taste mighty good." She also urged students to get a hearty, hot breakfast at home before coming to school.

PRECINCT FIVE

By tyographical error, the names of poll officers for Precinct five were erroneous in the last issue of THE NEWS. The list should have read: Mrs. Isabelle Wisely, inspector; Nettie Harms and Laura Maxwell, judges; Harry Daniel, Helen Bentley and Clara Lamb, clerks.

A wall was built along the northern boundary of New York City when it was settled by the Dutch. The present Wall Street is at about the same position as that wall.

Save a part of every dollar

Let's do a little imaginary arithmetic.

If you work 30 years and earn an average of $4000 a year, you will have earned $120,000. That is a lot of money.

But if you spend every cent of it, you won't have a cent in 30 years.

If you save, say, a fifth of what you earn, and put it in Euclid Savings & Loan at Ontario, you'll have $24,000, PLUS the compounded interest (now 4%), which will add a few thousand more to your pile.

And your money will be sitting there safely in a fine, conservative, locally-managed, 31-year-old savings institution, with assets of over $11 million, and your account will be insured by an agency of the U. S. Government.

Accounts Insured to $10,000 by an agency of the Federal Government.

Catholic Ceremony Unites Anita Andrade, Mr. Lopez

Anita A. Andrade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Antonia Andrade, 1398 Bowen St., became the bride of Victorino Lopez, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nicolas Lopez, Ontario, in a double ring ceremony performed recently in St. Joseph's Catholic church, the Rev. Father Lyng officiating. There were 150 invited guests who witnessed the nuptial rites.

The sanctuary of the church was decorated with large standing baskets of white flowers and the altar was adorned with bouquets of white flowers and white tapers in silver candelabra.

Escorted By Father

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, and presented a radiant picture in her flooor length wedding gown of white satin and lace, designed with the underdress of satin, long satin sleeves ending in a point over the hand, lace panel inserts on each side of the skirt, which ended in a train and the neck finished with a scalloped lace collar. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a coronet of seed-pearls. Her bridal bouquet was a combination of white carnations and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Rachel Lomeli, of Martinez, Calif., sister of the bridegroom was chosen as matron of honor. She was attractively gowned in blue lace in a sheath design, with an overskirt of taffeta. With this, she wore a matching crown headdress and white shoes and gloves. Her bouquet was an arangement of white orchids.

Trio Of Bridesmaids

Bridesmaids were Natalie Andrade, sister of the bride; Vickie Rivera, Upland, and Janie Rodriguez of Ontario. Their gowns were made of pink taffeta, princess style and ballerina length. Matching crown headdresses and white shoes and gloves completed their costumes. They also carried white orchid bouquets.

Margo Sandoval, in a blue taffeta dress was flower girl and Jerry Martinez, in white jacket and black trousers, was ring bearer.

Raul Lomeli, brother-in-law of the bridegroom assisted as best man and Leonard Serrano, Fort Ord, Calif., Johnny Chavez and Louis Garcia of Ontario served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Andrade was modishly attired in a royal blue sheath dress, with which she wore white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Carmen Cardin, vocal soloist, sang "On this Day Oh Beautiful Mother" and "Ava Maria" preceding the ceremony.

Two Wedding Cakes

A wedding reception was held at 417 E. Park St., Ontario, with the Misses Mary Alonzo and Carmen Ruiz as hostesses, assisted by many relatives and friends of the bride and groom. The reception rooms were attractively decorated with bouquets of fall flowers and pink and white crepe paper streamers. The bride's cake was four-tiered, lavishly decorated and topped by a miniature bride and groom in a heart shaped background. There was also a bridegroom's cake.

For a wedding trip to Fort Ord, where the bridegroom is stationed, the new Mrs. Lopez wore a green sheath dress, with black accesories.

Both the bride and groom have lived in this area their entire lives, the bride attending Upland schools and Chaffey high school. She was employed by the American National Ins. Co. of Pomona. The bridegroom is a graduate of Pomona Catholic high school and attended Chaffey college where he was a member of the Lettermen's club. He is now on a tour of duty with the U.S. army.

Here's what makes a Medallion Home your BEST new-home buy

(and your safest investment for the future)

When you invest in a home that has qualified for the Medallion award, you know it meets all these standards of better living:

1. Modern All-Electric Kitchen
Major electric appliances — including a built-in electric range and oven — are already installed in every kitchen of every Medallion Home development. They are part of the basic plan and cost in all Medallion Homes.

2. Wiring for Present and Future
"Full Housepower" wiring — required in every Medallion Home — means plenty of circuits for all today's electrical needs plus extra capacity, for the many new appliances you will want tomorrow.

3. Lighting for Beauty and Eye Comfort
Every Medallion Home must provide lighting which is "easy on the eyes" two ways: It must permit you to use every room, hallway and entrance safely, comfortably and efficiently... and it must beautify those areas, too.

Resale value of a Medallion Home is protected, because a Medallion Home will stay electrically up-to-date in the all-electric future. (By striking contrast, two out of three new houses being built are already electrically obsolete.)

So look for extra-value homes which have earned the Medallion. No family should buy a home without it.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA Edison COMPANY helps you LIVE BETTER—ELECTRICALLY

ing her name in the village newspaper gave Cathy a wonderful shock. The paper announced that Cathy would have a story hour twice a week at her house during the summer.

"It was the first time that Cathy had had such a responsibility and it brought some sorrows like almost not getting to see a certain movie. There were times when Cathy fell back into childhood such as the time she fell through the floor of a house she was exploring.

'Why she wanted to explore the house, what happiness the story hour brought are both told in this wonderful book."

Travel Fashions Well Received At Unique Event

Methodist Youth Fellowship fashion show, "Have Fashions will Travel", was well received Thursday, Oct. 23. Misses Janet Ford, Lois Schubert, Kay Gannon, Janet Schneider and Nancy Nicholson, attired in uniforms of an airline stewardess, were at the doors of Fellowship hall, to welcome and "take aboard" those attending.

Fashions were shown against a large mural background, composed of six colorful posters from as many foreign countries, the entire mural bordered with royal blue metallic foil.

Miss Janet DeLozier, in a Kelly green Western Airline's uniform and Gene Amberson in a grey-blue pilot's uniform served as commentators for the showing of fashions, designed for men, women and children. The styles were provided by J. J. Atwood Co. Mrs. Charles Jacobs provided soft background music for the models.

Chuck Adams was master of ceremonies for the show and entertainment which featured a hula dance by Beverly Behm and Marilyn Murphy. A film of Mexico City was also shown. Vocal offerings by a quartet, Messrs. Francis Wilson, Robert Vance, Adams and Carl Hess completed the evening's program.

Refreshments were served from a table arranged by Mrs. Earl Wenger.

Proceeds from the fashion show will be used for youth mission projects and future youth activities.

FACULTY COUPLES, GUESTS LEARN HULA IN ISLAND FANTASY SETTING

Highland Wives transformed the Upland High School gymnasium into an island fantasy Saturday evening, Oct. 25, for their annual presetation of the Highland Fling.

Members and guests entered the Island paradise via the gangplank of the USS Leilani, while on the inside they were surrounded by examples of island living, including low tables of fruit placed on mats and an overhang of fish nets, a well lighted hut for those who cared to play bridge and a hut where Hawaiian Abe busied himself making hats and colorful leis. The center of the floor was reserved for dancing.

Intermission entertainment was provided by Ginger Allen and her students who demonstrated modern versions of famous Hawaiian dances. Hawaiian Abe taught the hula to the audience during the second intermission.

Mrs. Charles Martini was general chairman for the evening and she was assisted by Mrs. Wallace Randleman, refreshments; Mrs. Herbert Christian, decorations, Mrs. John Robison, tickets, Mmes. Larry Brewer and Dale Stevens, publicity chairmen.

There were several private parties preceding the main event. The Mark Alexanders of Mt. Baldy Village attended a taco dinner of Mt. Baldy Community club in the fire hall, with the Fred Beals and Steward Polings as guests, then all attended the Highland Fling.

The Kenneth Proctors and their guests also attended the Mt. Baldy club taco dinner, wet to the Chaffey game and completed their evening dancing at the Highland Fling.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McLeish entertained Mesrs and Mmes. Rirchard Barr, Allen Palmer, Joe Kamansky, W. W. Woodward and Bruce Claflin at a buffet supper in their home in Ontario, where Mrs. McLeish had carried out the Hawaiian theme.

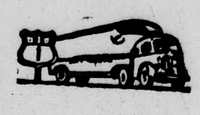

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shirk, 1287 N. Laurel Ave., had as dinner guests before the fling, Messrs. and Mmes. Dan Milliken, Edwin Hunt, Rex Wignall, John Burnison, Clarence Calhoun, Elwood Chapman, Dana Alexander, Joe Reynolds and Elmer Glenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Maxfield, 841 N. Palm Ave., had Mr. and Mrs. Ted Maxfield of Lancaster as week end guests. The Lancaster couple with their two daughters, Charlotte and Claudie, attended the Highland Fling in the company of their hosts. Mr. and Mrs. John Mitchell, 251 Greentre Rd., joined the group for dinner at the Sycamore Inn, and then all proceeded to the dance.

Mrs. S. G. Moore, 525 N. Euclid is entertaining as her house guest Mrs. Mary Barth of Carlsbad, Calif.

Whittier Civic Orchestra, Chorus Join Foothills Music Assn. For 'Messiah'

Foothills Music Assn. combined with the Whittier Civic chorus and the Whittier Civic orchestra of more than 80 musicians will present the "Messiah" on Friday evening, Dec. 5, in the National Guard armory in John Galvin park. The combined chorus will consist of more than 200 chosen singers, according to W. Campbell Nelson, area manager.

The "Messiah" will also be presented Sunday afternoon, Nov. 30 in Bethel Congregational church by the Foothill Assn., with an organ accompaniment.

Following the Dec. 5 presentation, the combined chorus and orchestra will be heard in Whittier high school, at an afternoon performance.

This marks the 14th consecutive presentation of the "Messiah" in this area and the second that it has been a part of the United Festival sponsored by the So. Calif. Council of Protestant Churches.

Ruth Haroldson is director of the civic orchestra, Warren Marsh is director of the Whittier chorus and S. Earle Blakeslee is director of the Foothills Assn. All performances are free to the public. Additional singers are invited to participate, and should report for the rehearsal next Tuesday evening in the Congregational church, Ontario.

Miss Sandra Withrow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter I. Withrow, 807 N. Second Ave., has been welcomed as a member of a sorority of the University of Redlands. She was presented as a new member by Alpha Theta Phi sorority at the recent "Presents Night" ceremonies.

Meet The Teacher

Miss Harris Approves Ski Lift Ride

Meet a lady who had a yen to take a ski-lift trip for years! Miss Dorothy E. Harris, English teacher at Upland High school, was disappointed by the fog on a trip to the White Mountains in New England. She missed the ski-lift trip to the top.

During her first day at Upland High School, the entire staff was taken to the top of Mt. Baldy for the orientation before school opened, and Miss Harris finally had her ride. "What a wonderful way to start school!" she said.

Miss Harris spends most of her time helping those students who are low in reading. She who are slow in reading. She has extraordinary patience and has devised many interesting and stimulating teaching tools for her work. She is well qualified for this particular job.

Traveled Extensively

She received her B. A. at Seattle Pacific College; her M.S. in Education at University of Southern California, and she took special work in the Reading Clinics of Pennsylvania State University.

She was graduated from Seattle Pacific College Magna Cum Laude. She has traveled extensively in the United States and Canada, and admits to a good case of wanderlust.

Her church work with the Christian Missionary Alliance has been gratifying to her. She has had published many articles on Christian Education, and on Discipline in Sunday School. She has written a complete course for training Sunday School teachers.

Is Bible Club Sponsor

Miss Harris loves her work. 'These youngsters want to read, and I know I can help them to experience the thrill of understanding books and other printed material." And her students look forward to the sessions.

She moved to this area from Fresno, and is at present located at 1029 West F St., Ontario. She is a sponsor of the Highlanders' Way club at Upland High school.

College Planes Equipped With Two-Way Radio

Another safety feature in the flying program sponsored by Chaffey College is the addition of high frequency receivers and transmitters placed in the college Piper Cub and Aeranco planes. Flying has been scheduled for week ends due to the heavy traffic at International airport, necessitating two-radio communication between the student flyer and the airport.

Elwin Alder, Upland city manager, is chief instructor for 30 members of Chaffey Collegiate Flying club working for their private licenses this semester. Robt. Brahm is assistant instructor and Del Hungerford is teaching the private pilot ground training class, a lecture course open to all persons interested in basic meteorology, naviagation, CAA regulations, aircraft and aircraft engines.

Fred Felsch, head of the Technical-Vocational division of the college, is advisor to the Flying club. Greater Upland members of the club are Dan Nicholson, Gene Nicholson, Larry Beck, James Pitchford and Adrian Severson, Upland, and Lester Weaver, Cucamonga.

Dr. Hazel Adele Pulling, librarian; Mrs. Myrtle Owen, reader services department head, and Mrs. Althea Correll, head of the children's library, will represent Upland Public Library today and Friday at sessions of the Calif. Library Assn. in Long Beach.

Piano Solo Wins For Ron Hutcherson

Ron Hutcherson, Upland sophomore at Chaffey College, was first place winner in the single male event of the talent competition staged Oct. 26 at Casa Colina's 20th anniversary celebration.

Hutcherson, a language major at Chaffey, performed on the piano to win the first prize playing his own composition, yet untitled. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Hutcherson, 1324 N. Third Ave., he played the piano since he was a small boy and has had a few lessons but his ability is largely a natural talent. He doesn't read music, yet he has written several compositions including the number he performed at Casa Colina.

Two other collegians of the Greater Upland area were first prize winners at the event. Ron Collette of Alta Loma and David Martinez of Upland were members of the Chaffey Quartet which won first prize in th group competition. Other vocalists were Terry Kirkman and Revel Hammons.

The service, conducted by the Rev. Paul G. Johenk, Methodist chaplain of the hospital, was attended by patients, as well as representatives from Los Angeles, Inglewood, Alhambra and Pasadena churches. There were 17 representatives from Upland.

World Friendship Girls, acting as a choir, provided special music for the service by singing an anthem. The service was broadcast throughout the hospital.

Construction Outlook Good At 10 Months

Despite the usual October slump in new building in Upland, construction for 1958 exceeds 1957 construction at the 10-month mark, Building Inspector Richard Derby reports.

For the first 10 months of 1958, when October books were closed Oct. 28, there were 485 permits issued representing a construction valuation of $5,069,876. This is a $228,437 increase for the 10-month period over the same period of 1957, when 444 permits had been issued for construction valued at $4,841,439, Mr. Derby said.

City Within City

With this financial lead, with 41 more permits issued, the city official appeared optimistic for the annual construction picture in Upland. August was an unusually heavy month for new building.

Contributing greatly to the construction picture is the development of Foothill Knolls by the Medco Corp. Virtually a city within a city is fast covering what was once wash land in northeast Upland, just west of Red Hill Country club golf course. The panoramic view of the new residential area from Red Hill is spectacular, and with the pending commercial center on Foothill, the area will be a self contained.

249 Home Permits

For October, Mr. Derby reports 33 permits issued with a valuation of $744,068. Of this, only four permits were for new dwellings, with a total valuation of $50,700. For the 10-month period, 249 home permits have been issued—more than half the total permits issued with a valuation of $3,364,220—two thirds of the total building for the 10 months.

A year ago, 62 permits were issued during October but with the low total valuation of $372,889. Twenty-six of these were for homes, representing $331,900—a major portion of the total valuation of Oct construction.

For the 1957 10-month period, 211 home permits had been issued with a total valuation of $3,148,250—considerably less than the current homes figures for 1958. For this year, the average cost of dwellings constructed is $13,511, while a year ago the valuation averaged $14,921, according to permit figures. However, some of the 1958 permits represent some of the most expensive homes built in Upland for many years.

Memory Expert, Humorist Regales Kiwanis Party

Sixty-two Kiwanians, wives and guests attended the steak fry of Upland Kiwanis club on a recent evening at Upland firemen's cabin, when Harry Thompson served as chef and Geo. Yetter, club social chairman, was official host.

The group was entertained by Orville A. Porter of Maywood, memory expert and humorist, who regaled the group with his memory work interspersed with comedy and unique salesmanship.

Sharon Lee Smith will head the telephone committee and six members volunteered to form a puppet and storytelling group which will prepare programs for the entertainment of groups of children at the library.
